13. (Secret - PLC) Picked up from J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, a paper on Cuban communist influence in Puerto Rico written by an employee of the Puerto Rican Department of Justice who has appeared as a witness before the Subcommittee. He asked that the Agency review the paper written in Spanish and advise him as to whether we consider it worthwhile to be published in Spanish as an exhibit to the hearings. He also asked if the Agency would consider translating the paper to English, if we have a strong interest in it. [REDACTED] DDO, was advised of this and given the package.

9. (Secret - PLC) Duke Short, Senior Investigator, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, called and inquired as to when he would be receiving the material which [redacted] [redacted] was preparing in connection with his appearance before the Subcommittee. I said I would check and call him back. After checking with [redacted] DCD, I called Short back and informed him that the material was being sent up next week and he would get it as soon as it was reviewed by the Agency which would probably take a few days.

15. (Confidential - GLC) Jay Sourwine, on the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called concerning information made available to the Subcommittee by a representative of the government of Puerto Rico which he feels might be of interest to the Agency. Sourwine recalled that several years ago the Committee published the testimony of [redacted] in several foreign languages and said if we were interested in having this Puerto Rican's story printed in a foreign language (especially Spanish) they would be happy to entertain our suggestions to this effect. I told him we would pick up a copy of this statement and take a look at it and subsequently let him know.

39. (Internal Use Only - WPB) Dropped by the office of Doug Lea, Counsel, ~~Senate Judiciary Sub~~ Committee on Constitutional Rights to discuss S. 2008, the Tunney-Edwards criminal justice information bill. I outlined the Agency's problems in this field for him, and he admitted that foreign intelligence matters were not considered at all in drafting the legislation. He said he would be receptive to any suggestions we might have to modify the bill to accommodate foreign intelligence interests.
